

2019 Moot Court Sponsorship Invitation

The Appellate Lawyers Association is offering your firm a chance to receive national recognition through its annual Moot Court Competition to be held November 1-2, 2019.

Each year, the ALA sponsors a moot court competition that is judged by practicing appellate lawyers and sitting appellate judges—a feature that has made it a sought-after competition, attracting students from law schools across the country. Recent judges of the competition include Chief Judge Diane Wood, U.S. Court of Appeals for the Seventh Circuit; Judge Robert M. Dow, Jr. and Judge Edmond E. Chang, U.S. District Court for the Northern District of Illinois; Justice Anne Burke and Justice Mary Jane Theis, Supreme Court of Illinois; Justice Brent E. Dickson, Supreme Court of Indiana; Justice David Prosser, Jr., Supreme Court of Wisconsin; and numerous justices of the Illinois Appellate Court.

Sponsoring the moot court competition will offer your firm recognition in the legal community. As a national competition, we attract students from law schools nationwide, giving broad exposure and favorable publicity to your organization. Connecting with students at these schools will present your firm with an inside advantage to recruit some of the most promising young professionals in the industry.

About the ALA

The mission of the ALA is to foster and encourage the highest professional and ethical standards in the handling of appeals.

Through its programs and committees, the ALA reviews legislation and court rules affecting appellate procedure with the aim of achieving greater clarity and fairness.

Networking opportunities help facilitate closer and more effective communications between and among lawyers concentrating on appeals, the appellate bench, and the legislature. The ALA provides an environment to exchange ideas and techniques, to resolve common problems, and to discuss matters of mutual interest to those in this field.

The ALA is dedicated to improving the standards of quality and competence in the preparation of cases on appeal.
